

COMMUNICATION SERVICE TO BOOKMAKERS

AND TO DISSEMINATORS OF RACING NEWS

1. GENERAL

1.01 This section is being revised to convert B.S.P. C16.904, Issue A dated 11-1-60 to the new 9-digit numbering system. There has been no change in the text.

1.02 The Telephone Company will not furnish service to bookmakers or to disseminators of racing news who furnish such news to bookmakers for uses in violation of the law.

1.03 These instructions do not apply to recognized press associations or newspapers.

2. PLANT STATION INSTALLATION AND REPAIRS

2.01 If, at the time of installing the service, the installer has reasonable cause to believe that the service will be used for bookmaking or aiding and abetting bookmaking, he shall, before proceeding with the work, notify his supervisor who in turn shall notify the District Manager or other designated Commercial employee who will investigate the circumstances and take such action as is indicated in the existing Commercial Department instructions.

2.02 If, at the time a repairman is doing work at a premises and finds reasonable cause to believe that the service is being used for bookmaking or aiding and abetting bookmaking, he shall notify his supervisor who in turn shall notify the District Manager or other designated Commercial employee who will investigate the circumstances and take such action as indicated in the existing Commercial Department instructions.

2.03 If any employee obtains in the course of his duties, information indicating that any of the Company's service is being used or is to be used for bookmaking or aiding and abetting bookmaking, he shall report the same to his supervisor who shall notify the District Manager or other designated Commercial employee.

2.04 Under no circumstances shall the Plant employee discuss with the subscriber or applicant his proposed action as may be called for under Paragraphs 2.01, 2.02, and 2.03.